SOCIAL EVENTS

Sociability and hospitality joined hands last night in a welcome to those present at the first of a series of receptions given by Mayaville Lodge of Elks during the winter season in their magnificent Lodgeroom in Front street, overlooking the beautiful Ohio.

A concert was given by Outten's Orchestra from 8 until 9, many of the selections rendered being worthy of particular notice. Especially was this true of a trombone solo by Mr. Ellis, "Good Night, Beloved, Good Night."

Dancing was then indulged in by the devotees of the mazy waltz until 'night's candles had burned out and jocund day was winking at the misty mountain tops.

Mrs. James Barbour and Mrs. J. Barbour Russell were in charge of the dancing.

Those who cared not for the "poetry of motion" were taken in hand by the Committee on Cards, Mrs. John M. Hunt, Mrs. Thomas R. Phister and Mrs. Dr. P. G. Smoot, and initiated in the pleasure of euchre, etc., the tables for which were arranged in every conceivable cranny in the place.

The Committee, composed of Mesdames C. D. Newell, Will R. Smith and James Cummings, and Misses Mayme Key, Anna Dodson and Mary G. Daly, into whose hands each person present seemed to find themselves during the course of the evening, directed one's steps to the first floor of the building, where a dainty supper was served. The supper consisted of chicken salad, old ham, beaten biscuit, saratoga chips, pickles, sandwiches, celery, coffee and salted almonds.

The ubiquitous Entertainment Committee, Mrs. John C. Everett, Mrs. S. Pearce Browning and Mrs. J. Clarke Rogers, bent every effort to see that each and every guest had their full measure of pleasure.

These receptions were suggested by the cardinal principle of the Elks, Good Fellowship, and the desire to have this principle more fully exemplified in the Mayaville Lodge.

Nothing is so necessary to the success of a secret Order as individual interest, and this can only be held in many instances by the introduction of some social feature as an incentive. Hereafter the receptions will be limited to the Elks and their families and lady friends; but on last evening a departure from this rule was permitted out of courtesy to those young men who assisted the Elks in their minstrel of recent date.

The Lodge chose wisely when they placed this function under the direction of Chairman Dr. Matthews and his able assistants, M. Brown and W. N. Stockton, evidently knowing that their selection presaged success; and it certainly was an unqualified success in every particular and should be an encouragement of their continuance.

Back of the scene, however, is the real work done, and it would be gross injustice if the writer failed to mention the names of Mrs. C. D. Russell and Mrs. Dr. Edwin Matthews, without whose aid this affair, at least, would have fallen far below the standard set last night.

The young Misses assisting them were Margaret and Eleanor Hunter and Nannie Thompson. The "glad hand," for which the Best People on Earth are noted, was much in evidence last night, greeting you upon your arrival, wafting you through the dance, leading you to the festive board and waving you adieu as you departed.

Out-of-town guests present were—

Miss Mary Tweed, Ripley.
Miss Florence Lanier, Baton Rouge, La.
Miss Lida Power, Flemingsburg.
Dr. F. D. Wylie, Ripley.
Ed. McNeil, Manchester.
William Fleming, Flemingsburg.

Mr. Thomas Kewin, who has been ill at his home at Aberdeen, is improving.

EVANGELIST WILLIAMS

Another Big Audience and Good Sermon at M. E. Church

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAMS.

"Our Advocate or Attorney" was the subject of a most stirring and awakening sermon by the Rev. Mr. Williams last night.

His text was from First John, 2:1.

He said Christ was his Attorney, and when the tempter approached him he referred him to his Attorney. No difference how complicated may be the circumstances of the case or what may be the conditions of the affairs, Christ understands the case perfectly. Christ is thoroughly acquainted with the "law" in the case for he made it; was the one who was with the Father from the beginning and made all things. Christ is the advocate, our representative with God; that Christ is not in the "prayer-answering" business, but is asking the Father to answer our prayers; therefore we should say "for Christ's sake." Christ is pleading for all in a general sense. It is by this pleading that we have our breath, life, health. Without this general pleading the congregation could not reach home before death would be upon them, for "in Him we move and live and have our being." He pleads for us in a personal way.

To have this personal advocate we must surrender wholly to Him, and thus make Him our Attorney, and for that purpose we invite people to the altar of prayer that we may help them to a full surrender to Christ that he might become their Personal Advocate. Every man and woman must have an Attorney, as the sentence of Death is passed upon all, and we are on trial for our Eternal Life. A Pardon is the only thing that will save from the execution, and Christ is the only one at the Court of Heaven to be our Attorney. An unpardoned sinner is lost now. A pardoned sinner is saved now. Without the pardon the soul will go into Hell, the only possible place for them, the pardoned soul will go into Heaven, a place prepared for him.

The sermon was the best yet delivered. His appeal was earnest and sincere.

The following ministers were present and aided in the service; Mr. Gabby, Mr. Pilow, Mr. Sturgell and Mr. Jakes.

A Male Quartette and Mr. Muse's solo were special features in music.

Subjects—Tonight, "Conversion." Sunday morning, "Will We Know Our Friends in Heaven?" 3 p. m., at the Courthouse to men only; 7, "Breaking Home Ties."

SUDDENLY STRICKEN

Mr. William Stiles Attacked Yesterday Afternoon By Apoplexy

Mr. William Stiles, resident tobacco buyer for the American Tobacco Company at this place, was stricken with paralysis yesterday afternoon while inspecting a purchase of tobacco at August Rubenaker's barn on the Clark's Run road, six miles from here.

Dr. J. B. Taulbee was summoned and immediately went to his relief.

He was conveyed in a carriage to the Central Hotel where he is now some better.

Mr. Stiles has been employed by the American Tobacco Company for years, and is held in high esteem by his company as well as the farming community in general.

It is hoped that he may rally and recover from the present attack.

The popular drygoods house of D. Hunt & Son has installed a house telephone—a new innovation and the only one in the city. By simply moving a bar on a numbered dial communication can be carried on in the various floors of the house. It is a great convenience and time saver, and in an establishment like that of D. Hunt & Son, where time is money, it will soon pay for itself. It is a useful novelty and well worth seeing.

RARE PRIZES IN WOMEN'S

Ready-to-Wear Garments.

COATS.

If this paper reflected like a mirror and you could see in it the smartly tailored handsome Coats we now offer for $7½ women with coat needs wouldn't lose a minute getting here. But the collection is much broader—not every one may want the lower priced Coats for the finer ones at $10 are bargains just as great. At both prices the Coats were originally just double—$15 Coats are now $7½ and $20 Coats are $10.

SUITS.

In our $20 Suits for $10 we have less than a dozen left and just two popular colors, navy and black cheviot. The size range is 34 to 40. We have also a few $15 Suits now marked $7½ in clay-worsted, mixtures and cheviots.

SKIRTS.

There are many fine offerings in Separate Skirts. Prices are now $3, $15, $6½, $7, $10. The majority of the Skirts were originally about double.

CHILDREN'S COATS.

The styles are the smartest shown this winter. There is three months good service ahead of these Coats for this season and the designs can be safely carried over for next year.

The items above tell the story but the beauty of the garments, their attractiveness and goodness must be seen with your own eyes to be rightly appreciated. No charge for alterations. The lowest priced garment fitted as carefully as the finest.

TIME works wonders. When Senator FORAKER was Governor of Ohio he wrote a red ink telegram refusing to surrender the rebel flags that were on store in Columbus; and now he has offered and had passed in the Senate a bill appropriating $200,000 to mark the graves of Confederate soldiers who died in Northern prisons during the War.

THE Chinese Minister at Washington has legraphed his Government that any satisfactory legislation on the exclusion question is possible. He says that the majority of congressmen favor greater liberality, but that influence of the laboring class is too strong against the Chinese. This brings up the rather issue, as to who is making law for this country—the men elected by the people for especial purpose, or the other fellow?

LOUISVILLE, under the rule of her Bosses and Political Police, has become a nest for thieves, and some very low-grade thieves at that. Within three weeks there were, according to The Courier-Journal's news reports, seven highway robberies; and now thieves have broken into a Public School and stolen the pennies, nickels and dimes that the children had donated for the statue of STEPHEN COLLINS FOSTER, author of "My Old Kentucky Home."

Good! The Cigarmakers Union of Worcester, Mass., has taken an unprecedented stand in the matter of smoking by adopting a by-law imposing $5 fine upon any member of the Union found guilty of smoking a cigarette. This action was taken, it is said, to protect the sick benefit fund. An investigation showed that of the members who drew sick benefits the cigarette smokers were in the majority, and it was also argued that more death claims were paid to the families of cigarette smokers than to the families of men not addicted to the habit.

Jerry was wrought up over a rumor he had heard on his way from home, but which had not been verified to him. "Say, Mike," was his greeting, "did ye hear the Pope was dead?" "The Pope?" answered the laconic Mike, "what Pope?" "Why, the Pope in Rome, av course, yer thick-head. I heard he's gone." "Well, well," said Mike, reflectively, as he rested on his spade, "perhaps it's not so. But, say, Jerry," (after a pause,) "if it's true, sure I hope Teddy won't appoint a Protestant in his place."

THANKFUL

To the many friends who have during the past extended to me such a liberal share of their patronage. I wish to assure all that it has been my earnest desire to merit their confidence and deserve their support. My settled policy of dealing fairly and honorably with all, and selling only the best goods the markets afford at reasonable prices, will, in the future as in the past, be strictly adhered to; therefore I ask and confidently hope to get a continuation of your liberal support.

My stock will at all times be full and complete, new and clean, and buying in large quantities, as I do, from first hands, I shall at all times be in shape to meet any and all competition. During the coming season I shall have many special announcements to make in this space which may be of much interest to you, so watch it closely, and in the meantime when you want the best come to me.

GREENHORN CINCINNATIANS

How the Festive New York Cabby Does 'em Up in Small Packages

Correspondence Times-Star

The ways of the New York cab driver are past finding out. This statement is based largely upon the recent experiences of three Cincinnati men, whose troubles were due entirely to dishonest cabbies. Two had been dining at Delmonico's. It was after midnight when they left, to call upon a friend who had asked them to drop in at the St. Nicholas Club, just across the street. They didn't know that, however. It was raining hard, and they engaged a cab. They drove what they thought was a hard bargain, and paid $1.50 in advance before they entered the cab. Then they pitched wildly up and down street for three-quarters of an hour, and finally the vehicle was stopped in front of a large building. The windows were lighted, and a red canopy extended to the sidewalk. The young men hopped gaily out, and the cabman drove away. They marched up the tall steps, opened the door and walked in. A flustered hallman stopped them. They had entered a private house, in which a handsome dance was then well in progress. They bowed themselves out with apologies and walked to the St. Nicholas Club, no cab being available. At the club their friend had tired of waiting and had gone home. They walked through the rain to their hotel.

The third man had even a worse experience. It would have been much worse, except that in his training in the freight department of a railroad that enters Cincinnati, where he formerly made his home, he is accustomed to the rough neck variety of the genus humanus. He had attended a reception on a new ocean liner and took a cab for his home in the Bronx shortly after midnight. At One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street the driver refused to go any farther and demanded ten dollars. Refused, the driver issued a protocol, as diplomats would say. "Gimme ten, or I'll take it out of your hide." There was a lovely fight, at the end of which the driver stated that it would be a favor to him if the Cincinnati paid him the legal fare, but that he wouldn't press the matter. The fare was paid, and by the assistance of a bystander the driver was boosted to his seat, and, thanks to a horse that still preserved his sight, unimpaired by contusions, probably got to his stable in safety. But the incident was an annoying one.

DOESN'T LIKE GOSSIP

Representative Virgil McKnight's Telephone Bills Explained

The Frankfort correspondent of The Louisville Times says Representative McKnight has not, he says, been "caught in the act" of telephoning to some one, after which he had an explanation to make at home, as was believed when he introduced his bill in the house making it a misdemeanor to listen to another talking over the phone and then go out and tell what you have heard.

The bill provides a fine of from $10 to $50 upon conviction of violation, and the member from Mason gives a good reason for introducing it.

He says it is aimed at the girl operators with inclination to gossip, and at persons on party lines in the country who have time to listen when the call is for the next neighbor, and then go out and spread it over the whole countryside.

The statesman from Mason has been in the telephone business for several years and says complaints of that character are the bane of the existence of the owners of the small lines in the country places.

Mr. McKnight is in Louisville today to attend a meeting of telephone men to discuss the bills affecting them which have been introduced. He is opposed to the bill proposing to fix rates by a rigid rule, if it is to be done at all. He says that it can only be justly done, if the state takes a hand, by a State Commission.

Our Colored Citizens.

Mr. John Walker of Fort Wayne, Ind., is here on a visit, and is the guest of Mr. Henry Campbell of East Second street.

The Ministers' and Deacons' meeting at Bethel Baptist Church was of little success, owing to the intense cold weather.

Rev. J. F. Drane, Pastor of Mayslick Baptist Church, was in the city Thursday, en route to his field of labor.

Rev. W. J. M. Price of West Fourth street was in Winchester Tuesday on business.

The revival, which began at Bethel Baptist Church last Sunday night, is resulting in much. Everybody is invited to attend these services, beginning every evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Personal

Mr. Ernest Henson was in Ashland Thursday.

Colonel W. L. Yellman dropped in at Ashland a day or so this week.

Miss Mary B. Walton of Newport arrived yesterday on a visit to the family of Mr. Welburn Rees at Fernleaf.

Frankfort People Charmed With Miss Florence Pearce Wadsworth

The following compliment for a Maysville lady is taken from The Kentucky State Journal at Frankfort—

Those who were fortunate enough to hear Miss Florence Wadsworth sing at the Men's Meeting Sunday afternoon, and again at the First Christian Church Sunday evening, enjoyed a rare treat indeed. Miss Wadsworth's voice and her rendition of "Come Unto Him," from the Messiah, and of "The Intermezzo," from Cavalleria Rusticana, was received with applause.

The effects of the sweetness and the unusual volume of her voice on the large audience was easily perceptible, and the several hundred men present could not withhold their approval and gave vent to their feelings by loud applause. Miss Wadsworth is easily one of the best singers ever heard in Frankfort, and we hope she may come this way again.

The American Tobacco Company has secured storage room in the Cooper Building in Front street for 3,000 hogsheads of tobacco.

A UNIQUE RECORD.

Not Another Like It In Our Broad Republic.

To give positive home testimony in every locality is of itself unanswerable proof of merit, but when we add to this the continued endorsement from people who testified years ago no evidence can be stronger. A Maysville citizen gratefully acknowledges the good received from Doan's Kidney Pills, and when time has tested the cure we find the same hearty endorsement, with added enthusiasm and continued praise. Cases of this kind are plentiful in the work of Doan's Kidney Pills, and such a record is unique in the annals of medicine.

A. W. McClanahan, of A. W. & B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Maysville Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me more or less for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse and worse all the time. I repeat that I can confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to day than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire. I got the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
